

LUNCH AT THE LIBRARY

Example Public Library

California's public library summer meal programs provide children and teens with continued access to free, healthy food and learning opportunities essential to their development while school is out.

100

meals served to children and teens

15%

of families who participate in Lunch at the Library report that they don't get lunch anywhere else but the library*

5

library sites that served summer meals

Families who participate in Lunch at the Library know they can get help and essential resources at the library:

75% know they can find books and things to borrow at the library

80% know they can find access to computers

85% know they can find people to help them

Families who participate in Lunch at the Library also report that they feel good at the library:

65%

feel good about themselves

70%

feel happy

In 2018, 500 people completed surveys.

- Lunch at the Library participant

Lunch at the Library is a project of the California Library Association and the California State Library. It is supported by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Librarian. The Summer Food Service Program is a program of the United States Department of Agriculture, administered in California by the California Department of Education.

