Notes:

*When counting programs in a series:
   a. If it is an open series where people can attend any individual session within a series, then count each session as 1 program.
   b. If it is an enrolled program series where only one set of participants is registered to attend all sessions within the series, then count the entire series as 1 program.

 If actual total number of interactions with self-directed/passive programs is unknown, please provide an estimate.
